

THE HOMER FITTS CO.

ESTABLISHED 1866
THE STORE WHERE QUALITY COUNTS

Beautiful Gift Linens

These are indeed inexpensively priced. The real gift for the home could not take better form than in beautiful Linens, selected from the holiday stocks we have arranged for your selection.

ALL LINEN DAMASK, 70-inch .....$1.95
ALL LINEN TRAY CLOTHS .....98c
ALL LINEN TOWELS .....50c to $1.50

Holiday Special All Linen Damask Table Set

Consisting of

One full size Pattern Cloth and Half-dozen 22-inch Napkins to match—

$7.50 a set

Packed in handsome Holiday Gift Box.

FANCY COLORED TURKISH TOWELS ..39c to $1.25
BOXED TURKISH TOWEL SETS.....$1.00 to $1.75
TURKISH BATH MATS .....$1.25 to $3.75
LINEN HUCK TOWELING, per yard .....75c to $1.25

Grocery Stock at Bar- gain Prices EVERYTHING MUST GO

The Griffin Stock at 489 N. Main Street

Large can Tomatoes, each 15c
Pork and Beans, 1lb. 2 oz. can, each 8c
Campbell's Soup, each 9c
A good sweet corn, can 10c
Purity Brand Corn, 2 for 25c
Post Toasties, each 8c
Puffed Wheat, each 10c
20 Mule Team Borax, 10c
Sunny Monday Soap, doz. 50c
A dandy Molasses, gal. 40c
Vinegar, gal., 25c
1000 Spools Clark & Coats Thread, spool 5c
Spices, each 9c
A lot of Ladies' Underwear.
All brands of Tobacco at a discount.

My orders are to sell.

D. A. PERRY, Agent

We Are Showing Some Very Suitable Gifts for the Holidays

The prices are reasonable and the goods will appeal to you.

The
Frank McWhorter Co.

BARRE DAILY TIMES

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 9, 1922.

The Weather.

Fair and colder to-night; Sunday cloudy probably followed by snow; moderate to fresh northwest winds; shifting to northeast.

TALK OF THE TOWN

See the values in millinery at Mrs. Birnie's, 4 Laurel street.—adv.

Harold E. Kendall of Chelsea was a visitor in the city yesterday.

Mrs. F. J. Ahern of East street is passing a short visit in Hyde Park.

Highland linen and Crane's lawn in holiday boxes at Drown's Drug store.—adv.

Carroll's orchestra team left last evening for Stowe, where they played for a dance.

C. D. Denmore of Chelsea was a business visitor in the city yesterday afternoon.

Regular meeting of North Star lodge, Swedish Order of Vasa, Saturday, Dec. 9, at 7:30 p. m. Election of officers.

Window ventilators, fresh air without drafts, dust, snow, rain or germs. Sadler, outfitter, 10 Keith avenue.—adv.

Just received large lot of latest Broadway song hits. Littlefield Piano Co., formerly Bailey's Music rooms.—adv.

Truly a good time. Nurses' dance in Quarry Bank hall Wednesday, Dec. 13. Ice cream, punch and other good things. Carroll's orchestra.—adv.

Rummage sale. Where? Congregational church, Saturday, 2 to 8 p. m. Come and get your winter supply of clothing. Bargains.—adv.

Christmas orders taken for home-made Scotch shortbread. Orders must be in before Dec. 20. Mrs. M. Smith, 8 Laurel street or phone 243-M.—adv.

Miss Dorothy Addicks, dean of women at Cushing academy, has returned to Ashburnham, Mass., after a short visit with friends at Goddard seminary.

Would like to arrange basketball dates with teams in this vicinity. Send your open dates. W. W. Beattie, manager of Co. F basketball team, Northfield.—adv.

Have your heavy rubber footwear vulcanized now and be prepared for the season ahead. Work guaranteed to stay. J. J. Hastings, 371 North Main street.—adv.

Dr. Leonhardt found the cause of piles to be internal. His prescription, Hem-Roid, gives quick and lasting relief. We sell it with money-back guarantee. E. A. Drown.—adv.

The best place to take your battery is to the battery specialists. They already have over a hundred batteries and that shows that everybody likes the work done at Oliver's Battery station.—adv.

Middlebury college glee club—a concert of unusual excellence. Dancing after the concert, music by Landi's orchestra; Quarry Bank hall, Tuesday, Dec. 12, at 8 o'clock. Members of Barre Woman's club admitted by ticket, public 35c.—adv.

At a meeting held at Goddard seminary yesterday, Miss Lillian Avery, '23, of East Barre was elected manager of the girls' basketball team for the coming season. Miss Avery is an honor student at the seminary and is the third member of her family to be connected with athletics at the school. Miss Olive Fish, '23, of Barre was elected captain of the team. Miss Fish was captain of the Chester (Vt.) basketball team for two years, and is rated as one of the best girl forwards in the state. Coach Mowles has taken charge of the girls' team, and is putting them through daily practice in preparation for the first game, which will take place soon after the Christmas vacation.

In loving memory of William F. Mitchell, who died Dec. 9, 1920, inserted by wife and son, father, mother, sisters.

Call not back the dear departed. Anchored safe where storms are o'er; On the border land we left him, Soon to meet and part no more.

Craftsbury, Vt., Oct. 25, 1920. To my friends and neighbors:

I wish to tell you what the A. J. P. Rheumatic Remedy has done for me. You all know that I had to use crutches in order to walk. Last spring I was suffering terribly with the pain. I went to Mr. Griffith's store and purchased the A. J. P. Rheumatic Remedy and took it according to directions and the pain has left me as well as the crutches and I am 75 years old, too.

J. M. Patterson.

Coughs and Colds in Winter.

Indoor sedentary life in winter has a direct bearing on the prevalence of coughs and colds. Keep the bowels active and overcome constipation with Foley Cathartic Tablets. Colds, coughs, croup, throat, chest and bronchial trouble quickly relieved with Foley's Honey and Tar. Contains no opiates—ingredients printed on the wrapper. Largest selling cough medicine in the world. "Foley's Honey and Tar" is wonderful for attacks of coughs and colds," writes W. H. Gray, Venice, California. Sold everywhere.—adv.

For plumbing and heating call James McLeod, 123 Orange street. Tel. 823-W.—adv.

H. J. M. Jones has been confined to his home in Montpelier for a few days by illness.

The Tourist club will meet with Mrs. Watkins, East street, Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Foss chocolates in one, two, three- and five-pound boxes. Make your choice now. Drown's Drug store.—adv.

Sixty-two colored slides of "The Other Wise Man," by Henry VanDyke, at the Presbyterian church Dec. 10.—adv.

Miss Nellie Swasey of Waterbury is passing a short visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Verone on Washington street.

A handy man: Do you need one for odd jobs in carpentering, mending and painting? If so telephone F. E. Skinner, 206-W, Barre.—adv.

We have a few attractive propositions in slightly used pianos. Ask to see them. Littlefield Piano Co., formerly Bailey's Music rooms.—adv.

We will call for your battery and put it in winter storage. Expert attention at reasonable prices. Kelly & Nelson, Main street garage, Tel. 770.—adv.

Batteries should be well taken care of during the winter. We are prepared to give expert attention at reasonable prices. Tel. 770 and we will call for yours. Kelly & Nelson, Main street garage.—adv.

The Barre Outing club drive for members needs more impetus if it is to be carried out in time to get things moving in the winter sport line this year. Already there have been quite a number signed up but only about one-third of the desired capital has been raised to date.

The missionary society of the Presbyterian church will hold a rummage and food sale in the vestry Thursday, Dec. 14, at 2 o'clock. At 7:30 there will be an entertainment and candy sale. Admission at night, 15c. Will all members and friends kindly contribute?—adv.

About 30 friends of Miss Virginia Malnati gathered at her home last night to tender her a miscellaneous shower. She received many beautiful gifts, including linen, cut glass and silverware. A mock marriage was performed by Miss Mary Realini, Miss Aurora Susena, Miss Ida Susena, Miss Mary Guanzini and Miss Virginia Malnati. Refreshments were served and dancing and games were enjoyed until a late hour, when all departed wishing Miss Malnati great happiness.

Miss Elizabeth Bell of Enosburg Falls, who has many acquaintances here through visits to her brother, Athol Bell, has resigned a position as member of the faculty of Lyman Hall high school in Wallingford, Conn., to accept a similar position on the faculty of the Central high school of Springfield, Mass., rated as the leading high school in New England. Miss Bell will be instructor in dramatic constructive work and expression. The school has an enrollment of 900, with 50 on the faculty. The position Miss Bell will occupy is newly created. She is a graduate from the Emerson School of Oratory and recently was honored with the degree of bachelor of literary interpretation.

To-night Spaulding high school plays her first basketball game of the season. St. Michael's is the first opponent of the season and as the team is a strong one fans will have a good chance to size up the Spaulding team and advance comment on the season's outlook. The line up of the team, which will start to-night, is not definitely determined but it is expected that Woodcock, Watkins, Burke, Smith and Howie will be among the starters. The game is called for 7:30 o'clock.

TALK OF THE TOWN

For plumbing and heating call James McLeod, 123 Orange street. Tel. 823-W.—adv.

H. J. M. Jones has been confined to his home in Montpelier for a few days by illness.

The Tourist club will meet with Mrs. Watkins, East street, Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Foss chocolates in one, two, three- and five-pound boxes. Make your choice now. Drown's Drug store.—adv.

Sixty-two colored slides of "The Other Wise Man," by Henry VanDyke, at the Presbyterian church Dec. 10.—adv.

Miss Nellie Swasey of Waterbury is passing a short visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Verone on Washington street.

A handy man: Do you need one for odd jobs in carpentering, mending and painting? If so telephone F. E. Skinner, 206-W, Barre.—adv.

We have a few attractive propositions in slightly used pianos. Ask to see them. Littlefield Piano Co., formerly Bailey's Music rooms.—adv.

We will call for your battery and put it in winter storage. Expert attention at reasonable prices. Kelly & Nelson, Main street garage, Tel. 770.—adv.

Batteries should be well taken care of during the winter. We are prepared to give expert attention at reasonable prices. Tel. 770 and we will call for yours. Kelly & Nelson, Main street garage.—adv.

The Barre Outing club drive for members needs more impetus if it is to be carried out in time to get things moving in the winter sport line this year. Already there have been quite a number signed up but only about one-third of the desired capital has been raised to date.

The missionary society of the Presbyterian church will hold a rummage and food sale in the vestry Thursday, Dec. 14, at 2 o'clock. At 7:30 there will be an entertainment and candy sale. Admission at night, 15c. Will all members and friends kindly contribute?—adv.

About 30 friends of Miss Virginia Malnati gathered at her home last night to tender her a miscellaneous shower. She received many beautiful gifts, including linen, cut glass and silverware. A mock marriage was performed by Miss Mary Realini, Miss Aurora Susena, Miss Ida Susena, Miss Mary Guanzini and Miss Virginia Malnati. Refreshments were served and dancing and games were enjoyed until a late hour, when all departed wishing Miss Malnati great happiness.

Miss Elizabeth Bell of Enosburg Falls, who has many acquaintances here through visits to her brother, Athol Bell, has resigned a position as member of the faculty of Lyman Hall high school in Wallingford, Conn., to accept a similar position on the faculty of the Central high school of Springfield, Mass., rated as the leading high school in New England. Miss Bell will be instructor in dramatic constructive work and expression. The school has an enrollment of 900, with 50 on the faculty. The position Miss Bell will occupy is newly created. She is a graduate from the Emerson School of Oratory and recently was honored with the degree of bachelor of literary interpretation.

To-night Spaulding high school plays her first basketball game of the season. St. Michael's is the first opponent of the season and as the team is a strong one fans will have a good chance to size up the Spaulding team and advance comment on the season's outlook. The line up of the team, which will start to-night, is not definitely determined but it is expected that Woodcock, Watkins, Burke, Smith and Howie will be among the starters. The game is called for 7:30 o'clock.

The light top which has been pht on top of the snow during the past 48 hours has made a great difference in the transportation problem. Pungs, sleds and sleighs have increased in number every day and many of the wheeled delivery vehicles have been discarded in favor of the runner equipment.

The legislative committee of all unions affiliated with the Central Labor union of Barre will meet with the legislative committee of the Vermont State Federation of Labor Sunday afternoon, Dec. 10, at 2:30 p. m. in quarry workers' room, Scamplin block. Many matters are to be considered and it is important that every union be represented. Per request of legislative committee of Vermont State Federation of Labor.

To-night Spaulding high school plays her first basketball game of the season. St. Michael's is the first opponent of the season and as the team is a strong one fans will have a good chance to size up the Spaulding team and advance comment on the season's outlook. The line up of the team, which will start to-night, is not definitely determined but it is expected that Woodcock, Watkins, Burke, Smith and Howie will be among the starters. The game is called for 7:30 o'clock.

The light top which has been pht on top of the snow during the past 48 hours has made a great difference in the transportation problem. Pungs, sleds and sleighs have increased in number every day and many of the wheeled delivery vehicles have been discarded in favor of the runner equipment.

The legislative committee of all unions affiliated with the Central Labor union of Barre will meet with the legislative committee of the Vermont State Federation of Labor Sunday afternoon, Dec. 10, at 2:30 p. m. in quarry workers' room, Scamplin block. Many matters are to be considered and it is important that every union be represented. Per request of legislative committee of Vermont State Federation of Labor.

To-night Spaulding high school plays her first basketball game of the season. St. Michael's is the first opponent of the season and as the team is a strong one fans will have a good chance to size up the Spaulding team and advance comment on the season's outlook. The line up of the team, which will start to-night, is not definitely determined but it is expected that Woodcock, Watkins, Burke, Smith and Howie will be among the starters. The game is called for 7:30 o'clock.

The light top which has been pht on top of the snow during the past 48 hours has made a great difference in the transportation problem. Pungs, sleds and sleighs have increased in number every day and many of the wheeled delivery vehicles have been discarded in favor of the runner equipment.

The legislative committee of all unions affiliated with the Central Labor union of Barre will meet with the legislative committee of the Vermont State Federation of Labor Sunday afternoon, Dec. 10, at 2:30 p. m. in quarry workers' room, Scamplin block. Many matters are to be considered and it is important that every union be represented. Per request of legislative committee of Vermont State Federation of Labor.

To-night Spaulding high school plays her first basketball game of the season. St. Michael's is the first opponent of the season and as the team is a strong one fans will have a good chance to size up the Spaulding team and advance comment on the season's outlook. The line up of the team, which will start to-night, is not definitely determined but it is expected that Woodcock, Watkins, Burke, Smith and Howie will be among the starters. The game is called for 7:30 o'clock.

The light top which has been pht on top of the snow during the past 48 hours has made a great difference in the transportation problem. Pungs, sleds and sleighs have increased in number every day and many of the wheeled delivery vehicles have been discarded in favor of the runner equipment.

The legislative committee of all unions affiliated with the Central Labor union of Barre will meet with the legislative committee of the Vermont State Federation of Labor Sunday afternoon, Dec. 10, at 2:30 p. m. in quarry workers' room, Scamplin block. Many matters are to be considered and it is important that every union be represented. Per request of legislative committee of Vermont State Federation of Labor.

To-night Spaulding high school plays her first basketball game of the season. St. Michael's is the first opponent of the season and as the team is a strong one fans will have a good chance to size up the Spaulding team and advance comment on the season's outlook. The line up of the team, which will start to-night, is not definitely determined but it is expected that Woodcock, Watkins, Burke, Smith and Howie will be among the starters. The game is called for 7:30 o'clock.

The light top which has been pht on top of the snow during the past 48 hours has made a great difference in the transportation problem. Pungs, sleds and sleighs have increased in number every day and many of the wheeled delivery vehicles have been discarded in favor of the runner equipment.

The legislative committee of all unions affiliated with the Central Labor union of Barre will meet with the legislative committee of the Vermont State Federation of Labor Sunday afternoon, Dec. 10, at 2:30 p. m. in quarry workers' room, Scamplin block. Many matters are to be considered and it is important that every union be represented. Per request of legislative committee of Vermont State Federation of Labor.

To-night Spaulding high school plays her first basketball game of the season. St. Michael's is the first opponent of the season and as the team is a strong one fans will have a good chance to size up the Spaulding team and advance comment on the season's outlook. The line up of the team, which will start to-night, is not definitely determined but it is expected that Woodcock, Watkins, Burke, Smith and Howie will be among the starters. The game is called for 7:30 o'clock.

The light top which has been pht on top of the snow during the past 48 hours has made a great difference in the transportation problem. Pungs, sleds and sleighs have increased in number every day and many of the wheeled delivery vehicles have been discarded in favor of the runner equipment.

The legislative committee of all unions affiliated with the Central Labor union of Barre will meet with the legislative committee of the Vermont State Federation of Labor Sunday afternoon, Dec. 10, at 2:30 p. m. in quarry workers' room, Scamplin block. Many matters are to be considered and it is important that every union be represented. Per request of legislative committee of Vermont State Federation of Labor.

To-night Spaulding high school plays her first basketball game of the season. St. Michael's is the first opponent of the season and as the team is a strong one fans will have a good chance to size up the Spaulding team and advance comment on the season's outlook. The line up of the team, which will start to-night, is not definitely determined but it is expected that Woodcock, Watkins, Burke, Smith and Howie will be among the starters. The game is called for 7:30 o'clock.

The light top which has been pht on top of the snow during the past 48 hours has made a great difference in the transportation problem. Pungs, sleds and sleighs have increased in number every day and many of the wheeled delivery vehicles have been discarded in favor of the runner equipment.

The legislative committee of all unions affiliated with the Central Labor union of Barre will meet with the legislative committee of the Vermont State Federation of Labor Sunday afternoon, Dec. 10, at 2:30 p. m. in quarry workers' room, Scamplin block. Many matters are to be considered and it is important that every union be represented. Per request of legislative committee of Vermont State Federation of Labor.

To-night Spaulding high school plays her first basketball game of the season. St. Michael's is the first opponent of the season and as the team is a strong one fans will have a good chance to size up the Spaulding team and advance comment on the season's outlook. The line up of the team, which will start to-night, is not definitely determined but it is expected that Woodcock, Watkins, Burke, Smith and Howie will be among the starters. The game is called for 7:30 o'clock.

The light top which has been pht on top of the snow during the past 48 hours has made a great difference in the transportation problem. Pungs, sleds and sleighs have increased in number every day and many of the wheeled delivery vehicles have been discarded in favor of the runner equipment.

The legislative committee of all unions affiliated with the Central Labor union of Barre will meet with the legislative committee of the Vermont State Federation of Labor Sunday afternoon, Dec. 10, at 2:30 p. m. in quarry workers' room, Scamplin block. Many matters are to be considered and it is important that every union be represented. Per request of legislative committee of Vermont State Federation of Labor.

To-night Spaulding high school plays her first basketball game of the season. St. Michael's is the first opponent of the season and as the team is a strong one fans will have a good chance to size up the Spaulding team and advance comment on the season's outlook. The line up of the team, which will start to-night, is not definitely determined but it is expected that Woodcock, Watkins, Burke, Smith and Howie will be among the starters. The game is called for 7:30 o'clock.

The light top which has been pht on top of the snow during the past 48 hours has made a great difference in the transportation problem. Pungs, sleds and sleighs have increased in number every day and many of the wheeled delivery vehicles have been discarded in favor of the runner equipment.

The legislative committee of all unions affiliated with the Central Labor union of Barre will meet with the legislative committee of the Vermont State Federation of Labor Sunday afternoon, Dec. 10, at 2:30 p. m. in quarry workers' room, Scamplin block. Many matters are to be considered and it is important that every union be represented. Per request of legislative committee of Vermont State Federation of Labor.

To-night Spaulding high school plays her first basketball game of the season. St. Michael's is the first opponent of the season and as the team is a strong one fans will have a good chance to size up the Spaulding team and advance comment on the season's outlook. The line up of the team, which will start to-night, is not definitely determined but it is expected that Woodcock, Watkins, Burke, Smith and Howie will be among the starters. The game is called for 7:30 o'clock.

The light top which has been pht on top of the snow during the past 48 hours has made a great difference in the transportation problem. Pungs, sleds and sleighs have increased in number every day and many of the wheeled delivery vehicles have been discarded in favor of the runner equipment.

The legislative committee of all unions affiliated with the Central Labor union of Barre will meet with the legislative committee of the Vermont State Federation of Labor Sunday afternoon, Dec. 10, at 2:30 p. m. in quarry workers' room, Scamplin block. Many matters are to be considered and it is important that every union be represented. Per request of legislative committee of Vermont State Federation of Labor.

To-night Spaulding high school plays her first basketball game of the season. St. Michael's is the first opponent of the season and as the team is a strong one fans will have a good chance to size up the Spaulding team and advance comment on the season's outlook. The line up of the team, which will start to-night, is not definitely determined but it is expected that Woodcock, Watkins, Burke, Smith and Howie will be among the starters. The game is called for 7:30 o'clock.

The light top which has been pht on top of the snow during the past 48 hours has made a great difference in the transportation problem. Pungs, sleds and sleighs have increased in number every day and many of the wheeled delivery vehicles have been discarded in favor of the runner equipment.

The legislative committee of all unions affiliated with the Central Labor union of Barre will meet with the legislative committee of the Vermont State Federation of Labor Sunday afternoon, Dec. 10, at 2:30 p. m. in quarry workers' room, Scamplin block. Many matters are to be considered and it is important that every union be represented. Per request of legislative committee of Vermont State Federation of Labor.

To-night Spaulding high school plays her first basketball game of the season. St. Michael's is the first opponent of the season and as the team is a strong one fans will have a good chance to size up the Spaulding team and advance comment on the season's outlook. The line up of the team, which will start to-night, is not definitely determined but it is expected that Woodcock, Watkins, Burke, Smith and Howie will be among the starters. The game is called for 7:30 o'clock.

The light top which has been pht on top of the snow during the past 48 hours has made a great difference in the transportation problem. Pungs, sleds and sleighs have increased in number every day and many of the wheeled delivery vehicles have been discarded in favor of the runner equipment.

The legislative committee of all unions affiliated with the Central Labor union of Barre will meet with the legislative committee of the Vermont State Federation of Labor Sunday afternoon, Dec. 10, at 2:30 p. m. in quarry workers' room, Scamplin block. Many matters are to be considered and it is important that every union be represented. Per request of legislative committee of Vermont State Federation of Labor.

To-night Spaulding high school plays her first basketball game of the season. St. Michael's is the first opponent of the season and as the team is a strong one fans will have a good chance to size up the Spaulding team and advance comment on the season's outlook. The line up of the team, which will start to-night, is not definitely determined but it is expected that Woodcock, Watkins, Burke, Smith and Howie will be among the starters. The game is called for 7:30 o'clock.

The light top which has been pht on top of the snow during the past 48 hours has made a great difference in the transportation problem. Pungs, sleds and sleighs have increased in number every day and many of the wheeled delivery vehicles have been discarded in favor of the runner equipment.

The legislative committee of all unions affiliated with the Central Labor union of Barre will meet with the legislative committee of the Vermont State Federation of Labor Sunday afternoon, Dec. 10, at 2:30 p. m. in quarry workers' room, Scamplin block. Many matters are to be considered and it is important that every union be represented. Per request of legislative committee of Vermont State Federation of Labor.

To-night Spaulding high school plays her first basketball game of the season. St. Michael's is the first opponent of the season and as the team is a strong one fans will have a good chance to size up the Spaulding team and advance comment on the season's outlook. The line up of the team, which will start to-night, is not definitely determined but it is expected that Woodcock, Watkins, Burke, Smith and Howie will be among the starters. The game is called for 7:30 o'clock.

The light top which has been pht on top of the snow during the past 48 hours has made a great difference in the transportation problem. Pungs, sleds and sleighs have increased in number every day and many of the wheeled delivery vehicles have been discarded in favor of the runner equipment.

The legislative committee of all unions affiliated with the Central Labor union of Barre will meet with the legislative committee of the Vermont State Federation of Labor Sunday afternoon, Dec. 10, at 2:30 p. m. in quarry workers' room, Scamplin block. Many matters are to be considered and it is important that every union be represented. Per request of legislative committee of Vermont State Federation of Labor.

To-night Spaulding high school plays her first basketball game of the season. St. Michael's is the first opponent of the season and as the team is a strong one fans will have a good chance to size up the Spaulding team and advance comment on the season's outlook. The line up of the team, which will start to-night, is not definitely determined but it is expected that Woodcock, Watkins, Burke, Smith and Howie will be among the starters. The game is called for 7:30 o'clock.

The light top which has been pht on top of the snow during the past 48 hours has made a great difference in the transportation problem. Pungs, sleds and sleighs have increased in number every day and many of the wheeled delivery vehicles have been discarded in favor of the runner equipment.

The legislative committee of all unions affiliated with the Central Labor union of Barre will meet with the legislative committee of the Vermont State Federation of Labor Sunday afternoon, Dec. 10, at 2:30 p. m. in quarry workers' room, Scamplin block. Many matters are to be considered and it is important that every union be represented. Per request of legislative committee of Vermont State Federation of Labor.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Christmas cards for every individual taste at Bell & Houston's.—adv.

Choice selection of Christmas cards at Drown's Drug store.—adv.

J. E. Veilleux of St. Johnsbury is passing a short business visit in the city.

James H. Bliss of Winchester, N. H., was a business visitor in the city yesterday and to-day.

Be sure and see the pictures of "The Other Wise Man" Sunday night at the Presbyterian church.—adv.

Miss Wilhelmina Even has returned to her home in Burlington, after a visit with relatives on Hill street.

G. W. Grishman of Meriden, Conn., who has been purchasing cattle in this vicinity, returns to-night to his home.

Closing-out sale of wood and coal and Perfection oil heaters. Call and get prices. E. A. Prindle, Worthen block.—adv.

A sweeping reduction in millinery. Every hat at far below cost to close. The Apparel Shoppe, Morse block.—adv.

Just received large lot of latest Broadway song hits. Littlefield Piano Co., formerly Bailey's Music rooms.—adv.

The Ministers' Monday club will meet in the parish house of the Episcopal church in Montpelier Monday morning at 10:30.

Miss A. E. Foss of St. Albans was a business visitor in the city yesterday, having come here for the purpose of having a granite slab cut equipment for her new hair dressing and manicuring shop in St. Albans.

It will be one big merry party at Quarry Bank hall Wednesday evening. The nurses of Barre City hospital are holding their annual dance and are anticipating the largest crowd in years. Carroll's orchestra will be there and that means there will be nothing but the latest and best in music. Better plan to attend.

The light top which has been p